

Mark Kratky

Vice President and CFO for Noble of Indiana, Mark Kratky brings extensive experience in financial analysis and reporting, accounting, budgeting, financial systems and operations within non-profit, private and publicly traded Fortune 500 SEC companies. In his capacity as Vice President and CFO, he is responsible for overseeing Noble's financial operations. He also provides financial counsel to Noble's CEO and to finance-related Board committees.

Professional Experience

- Manager, Financial Reporting & Consolidations, Clarian Health Partners, Indianapolis, Indiana.
- Controller, General Revenue Corporation (subsidiary of Sallie Mae), Cincinnati, Ohio.
- Director of Financial Reporting, Sallie Mae Corporation, Indianapolis, Indiana.
- Manager, Financial Reporting & Financial Systems, Sallie Mae Corporation, Indianapolis, Indiana.
- Senior Financial Analyst, Sallie Mae Corporation, Indianapolis, Indiana.
- Financial Analyst, Toronto Dominion Bank, Houston, Texas.
- Financial Analyst, Amerada Hess Corporation, Houston, Texas.
- Geophysicist, Getty Oil Co./Maxus Energy Co., Houston, Texas.

Community Leadership and Affiliations

- Member, Indiana CPA Society.
- Member, American Institute of CPAs (AICPA)
- Our Lady of Mount Carmel Coach and Sponsor
- Carmel Dads Club Coach.
- Big Brother, Houston.

Education and Certifications

- Certified Public Accountant, Indiana State Board of Accountancy, 2001.
- Graduate Program: Accounting, Indiana University in Indianapolis, 1995

Education and Certifications (cont.)

- MBA, Finance, University of Saint Thomas, Houston, TX, 1989.
- MS, Wright State University, Dayton, OH, 1983.
- BS, State University New York, Oneonta, NY, 1981.

Personal History

- Born in 1959.
- Married to Peg Kratky.
- Three children: Rachel, Amanda and Ben.

Noble of Indiana

Noble is a family-centered organization dedicated to meeting the needs of individuals with developmental disabilities. For over fifty years, Noble has remained committed to the mission of its founders: to create opportunities for people with developmental disabilities to live meaningful lives.

